

Brentford FESTIVAL 2016

The Urban Fox Orchestra of Steel are Ealing based and will be opening the event at 12 noon with familiar tunes. www.ufosteelband.com

Luge is a local band who have a good-time sound with original material and one or two carefully selected covers that will give a great upbeat vibe on the stage at the Brentford Festival at 12.40pm.

www.facebook.com/lets.luge

The Me-Time Pop Choir is primarily, though not exclusively, made up of local Mum's to Northfields/Ealing.

Set up by Mum, Singer and Vocal Coach Natasha Andrews (www.iwant2sing.co.uk) whilst on maternity leave to give Mum's some well deserved 'Me Time' and the chance to engage in a fun, stress-busting new hobby. The emphasis is in on having a good time and new members are always welcome. To find out more see <http://www.iwant2sing.co.uk/choir> or <https://www.facebook.com/Me-Time-Pop-Choir-864403416954051/?fref=ts>

Me-Time will be performing at 1.20pm

Having headlined at festivals all over the country David Sinclair Four, a London based rock and blues band will be performing on the Brentford Festival stage at 2pm.

www.davidsinclairfour.com

An eclectic group of dancers and musicians www.northfieldsmorris.com of all ages, The Northfield Morris Dancers will be performing at 2.30pm in the central field and will then be running a workshop to show how it is done.

www.northfieldsmorris.com

Sebastian Stone and his band Hudge plays upbeat, pop-tinged songs, with catchy hooks and thoughtful lyrics and will be performing at the Brentford Festival at 3pm.

www.hudgemusic.com

HUDGE

MICEBERG

'Miceberg are West London boys who write and play their own blend of 1970's inspired alt-rock and will be performing at 3.40pm.

www.facebook.com/micebergband

Feral Ghost is a rock and pop band who promise to play heartfelt music when they perform at 4.20pm at the Brentford Festival.

www.feralghost.com

Mad Stick Dog are a five piece band playing a toe-tapping selection of Cajun, Celtic and Old Time tunes on a variety of traditional stringed instruments and will be on the stage at 5pm.

www.facebook.com/MadStickDog

Thank you to everyone who agreed to perform at the Brentford Festival. We are grateful that they have done so without a fee which has enabled us to continue to put on this good quality West London event.

!